Sunday all day sessions as the exam date approaches. These dates are given to students in advance so as to enable them to inform families. We then invite family and friends to “Dry Run” performances in order to get feedback. We also do a summer term festival of drama performances. Buddy systems have been in place for a few years now. We have professional practitioners in frequently to work with the students at lunchtime an after school. We also help with buddying the students up with year 12 students to help them. This is arranged on lunchtimes that suit the year 12 students as they frequently have lunch
